

Diamonds search is an efficient exercise to become happier

Happy Wednesday to you all who pursue the only correct irrational approach! It will always award you with plenty of such diamonds & traps on your charts. After a brilliant exit on Sunday the price has managed to reach the level as low as below 40K and that coupled with a shallow retrace of about 30% @43630 give us the right to make an assumption that 32K level is likely to give up as of the end of the developing counter attack. A broadening wedge is too good to enjoy your accelerating down the hill. And do not forget to keep an eye at 2 defended critical levels: @43950 & @45150 especially.
